Evening Tony

We can get condo to remove the dead shrub, as far as moving the plants, I would suggest we have Donna of Bothell Lawn-care do it the guys at condo are not possible the best when it comes to more delicate work. Just a thought

Hi Mike,

Vera has a suggestion regarding the replacement of the dead shrub on the south side of our house. We have two japonicas in front of our house that are crowding each other. The larger one could be moved to replace the dead shrub. Could we engage Condo Commercial to do this on a date that they are here doing regular maintenance? I believe removal of dead plants is included in their contract. I know there would be an additional charge for moving plants.

Tony
